- 1. All successful bidders must remove their items from the auction site at the end of each days bidding. If you or your representative are unable to do so, smaller absentee purchases will be transported and stored at the RPA warehouse at the cost of $5 per lot. Larger items requiring additional assistance or special handling, i.e. jukeboxes, pop machines or furniture will be charged a minimum of $50 per lot. Items may be stored for 15 days at no charge.*
- 2. After payment of lots is made via credit card or wire transfer, bidders will receive a shipping quote for purchases made during the auction. Rich Penn Auctions takes great care in handling your purchases to ensure that all lots will arrive safely. All lots are professionally packed and shipped insured via USPS, Fed-Ex, or Freight. Packages valued over $200 will be shipped signature required.*
- 3. For bidders purchasing a large number of lots or items requiring special handling, freight can be arranged by FedEx Freight or handled by a blanket wrap carrier.*
- 4. If damage does occur in shipping, all items including: all packing materials, boxing and damaged items need to be retained until the claim is settled or it will be denied and you refund won't be issued.*
- 5. To speed up your shipping, payment for shipping charges to RPA may only be made by wire transfer or credit/debit card. We accept Visa, Master Card & Discover.*
- 6. All purchases are handled in a "First come, First Served" manner in order or payment received. After full payment is made including shipping costs please allow 2-4 weeks for delivery. Larger items needing freight or special handling may take longer.*
